Request for Brand Name Drug Coverage

The information you provide on this form helps us assess your request for coverage of a brand name drug. To be eligible for this coverage, medical evidence must show that you experience adverse side effects from the generic version. If your request is approved, coverage may be granted for a set period of time, after which you'll need to re-apply for continued coverage. Assessment of your request may be delayed if this form is incomplete.

You're responsible for any fees associated with completing this form.
